

ISTANBUL INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

Istanbul

The Festival features an international competition, provides a broad showcase for recent Turkish film productions, and thus represents a rewarding medium where Turkish and foreign filmmakers get together. The Festival draws a special interest to world classics, presenting retrospectives, and curated sections included in its programme which comprises close to 200 titles, making it the most comprehensive film festival in Turkey. With an admission number of 110,000 in 2019, it is also considered the biggest film festival.
